A set Exchanges sometimes consists of two sometimes three four and five separate drafts similar in form to those if it were certain that no delay or accident would happen to the ~~three~~ to it in passing from the drawer to the drawee one bill would be sufficient, but as this is not the case the object of drawing two or more of the same date is that some one of the may reach its destination even though the others should be miscarried in the circuitous and tedious transactions where the danger of such incurred precaution is most often resorted to.

Bark Governor Carver at Fayal

My dear Child

This is the First time that I have had a chance to write you a line of any kind

Bark Jno. Cox

Mr Henry Hilton

Sir

I have seen at Bayard with the good Bark Geo. Cover, and I am sorry to say that I am obliged to discharge my second mate on account sickness, it is the same that he had the voyage previous to this, and of which he had a slight touch of, before I sailed, he has lost the use of his hands all together, and I must say that I think his whole system runs to be affected in the same manner, for he is very low, & I thought at one time, it would be impossible to get him as far as this, but he has taken the water cooler, I would be at home before this time, I can assure you that I am very sorry to lose him for he is a good officer, a smart man, and a very agreeable shipmate, and if I can do anything for him or you in any qualities I have over him he is a good Wholesaleman. But he never should go to sea

Sir

I have search'd as far as Hayat and very much against my will on account of my Second Master being sick with the same complaint that he has had for two voyages previous to this. He was a good officer and a smart fellow but his sickness still hinders him he has lost the use of his hands the same as he had before. Then he had not recovered the use of them for upon eight weeks and by that time he was taken away again and I think upon the whole that he will never be able to perform a voyage in any Ship on account of his sickness

I never cast a flower away

I never cast a flower away,
The gift of one who cared for me
A little flower a faded flower
But it was dear reluctantly

I never liked to bask radiant
In things familiar but my heart
Shrunk with a feeling I almost dread
Even from this life to part

I spoke the word farewell
But with an utterance faint & broken
A heart sick yearning for the time
When it should never more be spoken

April 6th 1846 to Ivrid Bodum

Oh for the bright & gladsome hours
When like a wandering Stream
My spirit caught from earth and sky
The light of every beam
When in into my laughing eye
A tear drop chanced to start
Was banished in a moment by
The sunshine of thy heart

My thoughts were all as pure and sweet
As when I was a child
And all my bright imaginings
Are just as fair and wild
How were it not for one bright link
Of human affections chains
I'd wish to wander to that spot
And be a child again

[illegible] nature
Made me ever your Servaign [illegible]
Then the proudest [illegible]
Could have Drumlord [illegible]
Beauty's grace though [illegible]
Coarse [illegible] send will [illegible]
But with Virtues charms uniting
Shall [illegible] over my mind

What may for strength with steel compare
Oh! Love has fetters stronger far
By bolts of steel are limbs confin'd
But cruel Love enchains the mind

No more the lustre shall I'll join
Adieu! ye rural sports, adieu!
Since fair mistress grips like mine
With pastimes and delights do
Each heart at ease such pleasures [illegible]
And all depart will [illegible]
[illegible] must words my flame reveal [illegible] my Dear did you feel [illegible] my actions prove [illegible] more than eye
[illegible] one, a sigh
[illegible] Love!
